NGB PUBLICATIONS BULLETIN
No. 99-7

15 July 1999

1. NATIONAL GUARD BUREAU PUBLICATIONS AND BLANK FORMS.

a. Announcement of New Publications and Forms. This paragraph reflects the purpose of new publications or forms, applicability, proponent or OPR, and distribution symbol. Requirements for publications listed in paragraph 1a must be submitted to NGB-ADP, DSN 476-4212, Augusta, Maine, not later than 31 August 1999. Return to your local Pubs Office by:

_____.

AFI 48-115/ANGSUP1, The Tuberculosis Detection and Control Program. This publication applies to Air National Guard (ANG) Medical Squadrons, Medical Flights, and (as appropriate) Aeromedical Evacuation Squadrons. AFI 48-115, The Tuberculosis Detection and Control Program, is applicable to all ANG medical units unless otherwise noted. Additionally, this publication outlines ANG policy and guidance for compliance with Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) guidelines for tuberculosis (TB) exposure control in medical facilities. It should be implemented in consideration of related policy and guidance provided in AFI 48-101, Aerospace Medical Operations, AFI 44-108, Infection Control Program. Summarizing noteworthy items, this publication: (a) requires the development and implementation of a wing tuberculosis detection and control instruction outlining local TB program policy and procedure specifics; (b) authorizes locally-determined annual TB screening for selected cohorts; (c) outlines ANG policy for compliance with OSHA guidelines for TB exposure control; and (d) authorizes local implementation of standardized "self-read" policy and procedures. OPR: ANG/SGPM, distr: F.

e. General Information. Information of general interest concerning publications and blank forms, including advance information on changes, corrections to NGB publications, and NGB Test publications.

Currently, the site for electronic ANG publications and forms is not available from the Air National Guard Home Page, @ <http://airguard.ang.af.mil>. For referral, I have restated the opening sentences in this message below:

“Air National Guard electronic publications are no longer available from this site. We are working to re-engineer the electronic publishing process and will post updates on the progress.”

As a reminder, this site is not the official source for ANG publications and forms; rather, the official source is NGB-ADP, Camp Keyes, Bldg 34, Augusta, ME 04333-0032; DSN 476-4212. There is no other site for electronic ANG publications and forms. Paper copies of ANG publications and forms are available from NGB-ADP. To obtain these paper copies please reestablish your account with your local ANG PDO.

When and if a site for ANG publications and forms is reestablished, to ensure a consistent supply of publications and forms, it is advisable to continue your account with your local ANG PDO, as service disruptions for any site are always possible. Having a back up source would lessen the number of unnecessary requests for publications through telephone/ E-mail/ fax; thus, staff time would be wasted through unnecessary communications. If published sources are available, please maintain paper copies of these publications.

For your information, The Air National Guard Home Page contains the ANG Publication and Forms site and several other sites; below I have listed the POC and OPR:

SMSgt Tejada, eduardo.tejada@ngb.afn.af.mil, phone: DSN 327-5373, Comm (703) 607-5373

Supported by ANG/SCIP

As National Guard electronic forms are approved either in Jetform or Formflow format, they can be downloaded from the Guardnet website. To obtain logon and password information, contact your State DOIM Office. The website address is:

<http://guardnet.ngb.army.mil>

At this time, Army National Guard publications are not available electronically, but we know that work has begun to convert the publications to electronic format. As soon as they become available, we will announce their whereabouts.

f. Excess Publications and Blank Forms. Excess forms, location, quantity, point of contact (POC), telephone number. Not used this month.
